

List of the activities NGOs plan to execute on the use of female condom.

Below is a list of what the NGOs committed to carry- out within the next couple of months. BAOBAB for Women's Human Rights also informed them that they will be contacted to find out their progress in implementing the under-listed activities:

- Project Alert will introduce the use of the female condom to women that come to their organization with cases of violation of their rights.
- Women's Rights and Health Project will educate women in their menopausal age on the use of the female condom
- Human Angle will organize a step down training on female condom.
- KIND will add a session on the use of female condom in their leadership trainings for young girls in the universities.
- Gender Equity and Development Initiative will organize workshop and training on female condom for women and youths in her church (two participants)
- Ikorodu Local Government (Mrs Lawal) will renew the awareness of the female condom in Ikorodu Local Government. (6 Participants)
- Centre for the Right to Health will sensitize taxi drivers, commercial sex workers and taxi drivers on the need for female condom and where they can get it to buy.
- Youth Awareness Campaign Against Aids by next year, the representative at the workshop would submit a project proposal to its Board of Director on the use of the female condom.
- WODEF will communicate what she learnt at the workshop to her boss and the media they wok with. The female condom would also be introduced at their meetings.
- Prudent Women Foundation will organize training on the use of the condom for women in a churches and in a Local Government.
- Centre for Advancement and Development Rights (CEADER) Sensitize women leaving in slumps on the use of the female condom.

- Action Health Incorporated will lay more emphasis on the female condom at their trainings. (Two participants)
- New HIV Vaccine and Microbicide Advocacy Society (NHVIMAS) will continue to organize training on how to use the female condom.
- Centre for Madu will sensitize women on the use of the female condom.
- GADA will start telling women in the rural areas on the need for female condom.
- Save Haven International will continue to sensitize commercial sex workers on the need for female condom.
- SERAC will organize a seminar on the need for female condom.