We are valuable people.- Baobab writers for positive change (a group activity)

*We are valuable people because we believe we can make choices in the interest of other girls and women thereby bringing about positive change for a better society.
We believe in determination as the inner passion that drives us to achieve our goals.
We have team spirit because we all have the interest of making Nigeria a better place.
We are personalities who have decided to build high self esteem amongst young girls and women, who are discouraged and feel women cannot make it.
With determination and hard work, we can make it.*
